Recommended Reading

Spring & May Themes

- “Planting a Rainbow” by Lois Ehlert - A vibrant story about planting flowers and watching them bloom. Perfect for spring.
- “The Tiny Seed” by Eric Carle - Follows a seed growing through the seasons, great for May’s gardening theme.
- “Spring is Here!” by Will Hillenbrand - Celebrates seasonal changes in a fun, visual way.
- “Peach & Blue” by Sarah S. Kilborne - A sweet story about friendship and spring adventures.

Mother’s Day & Family

- “Llama Llama Misses Mama” by Anna Dewdney - Gentle story about love and reassurance, perfect for Mother’s Day.
- “Happy Mother’s Day, Mouse!” by Laura Numeroff - Cute, simple, and fun for young kids.
- “I Love You, Mom” by Jillian Harker - Short, sweet, and perfect for preschoolers to relate.

Nature & Outdoors

- “A Garden for Pig” by Kathryn Cristaldi - Explores gardening, growth, and teamwork.
- “May I Bring a Friend?” by Beatrice Alemagna - Friendship and sharing in a sunny spring setting.
- “From Seed to Plant” by Gail Gibbons - Introduces basic plant science and growth, perfect for May learning.
